Qingdao University

Location:

Qingdao University is located in the eastern coastal city of Qingdao, China, with a beautiful view of the Yellow Sea Coast with Mount Fushan in the background. In addition to consistently being ranked in China’s top cleanest cities, Qingdao’s beaches, parks, and unique German architecture helped this city gain the title of China’s most livable city in 2011. (Qingdao city’s website is: http://english.qingdao.gov.cn.)

Qingdao University:

Qingdao University was founded in 1924, and significantly expanded in 1993. Today, it has enrolled 32,300 undergraduate students, 6,400 graduate students, and 1,000 international students. It has 2,300 faculty and lab technicians, of whom there are 310 professors and 663 associate professors. (It has two very strong colleges: Medical School and Teachers College.) The main campus of Qingdao University is located at 308 Ningxia Road, Qingdao, Shandong, P.R.C., 266071. Qingdao University website: http://www.qdu.edu.cn (in Chinese) and http://english.qdu.edu.cn

Study Abroad:

International students can study in Qingdao University for a semester, a year, or can remain to study for the 2-year Master degree program.

Qingdao University colleges:

International Business- The Qingdao University International Business college offers classes that cover a wide variety of classes to prepare students to enter the field. Classes such as International economics, International trade, Accounting, Management, Marketing, Finance and more. The college offers 7 different graduate degrees. College website (in Chinese): http://ibc.qdu.edu.cn/IBC

Chinese Language- This language college has over 600 students from over 30 countries. In addition to undergraduate and graduate degrees, the Chinese Language department offers short-term and long-term study abroad programs for non-degree seeking students. Qingdao University is one of only two HSK testing centers in Shandong Province. College website (in Chinese): http://clc.qdu.edu.cn

Liberal Arts- The Qingdao University college of Liberal Arts offers a wide array of classes, ranging from both classical and modern Chinese literature to radio production. The graduate students from this college have an annual conference with students from Qingdao’s other top universities to establish connections and networks for graduates. College website (in Chinese): http://wxy.qdu.edu.cn
Medicine – Established in 1946 and offers nationally renowned Undergraduate and Graduate programs with courses including Clinical Medicine, Medical Laboratory Technology, Oral Medicine, Medical Imaging, Preventive Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, Biotechnology, Ophthalmology and many more. In total, there are 23 academic degrees to choose from. There are 3,700 undergraduates, 1,800 graduate students, and 5,000 continuing education students learning from 278 Professors, including distinguished professors from the Chinese Academy of Engineering. The Medical College of Qingdao University collaborates with 7 affiliated hospitals and 5 training facilities with over 18,000 hospital beds available for many opportunities including internships. The college takes pride in providing quality education including the breakthrough scientific research that is constantly being expanded. College website (in Chinese): http://qmc.qdu.edu.cn

Teachers College – Trains students to become teachers of lower and higher education in a variety of different subjects ranging from History, English Literature, and Curriculum and Pedagogy to Chinese literature, Math and applied mathematics, English, Chemistry, Physics, History, Geography, Ideological and Political Education, Physical Education, Educational Technology, Psychology, and Philosophy. The college is dedicated to providing students with innovative and interactive education so they can become successful educators of the future. College website (in Chinese): http://www.sf.qdu.edu.cn

Qingdao University has the following colleges:

- College of the Arts (8 professors and 21 associate professors)
- College of Automation Technology (20 professors, 34 associate professors & 51 lecturers)
- College of Career-Tech Education (28 professors and 35 lecturers)
- College of Chemistry and Environmental Science (54 full & associate professors)
- College of Economics (9 professors and 15 associate professors)
- College of Foreign Languages (12 professors and 22 associate professors, with majors in English, German, Korean, French, Japanese and Spanish)
- College of Information Technology (12 professors, 36 associate professors and 35 lecturers)
- College of International Business (22 professors and 35 associate professors)
- College of Liberal Arts (19 professors and 23 associate professors)
- College of Mechanical Engineering (17 professors, 33 associate professors and 20 lecturers)
- College of Music (16 full and associate professors)
- College of Textile and Apparel (36 full & associate professors and 23 lecturers)
- College of Tourism and Hospitality (6 professors, 7 associate professors and 13 lecturers)
- Law School (13 professors, 31 associate professors, and 34 lecturers)
- Medical School (178 full and associate professors; enrolling over 3,700 undergraduates, 1,800 graduate students, and 5,000 continuing education students)
- Teachers College (206 full and associate professors in 13 departments)