Bridging the World

November 9, 2004

Great News! The USF International Photo Contest judges, consisting of Lou Marcus (School of Art and Art History), Noel Smith (GraphicStudio/The Institute of Art Research), and Evelyn Levinson (International Admissions) have selected 11 winning images from more than 300 submissions.

An awards ceremony was held Wednesday, November 17 at the Preview Room in the Administration Building of the USF Tampa campus. The eleven winning photographs were selected for a special exhibit, and grand prizes will be announced in each of three categories: Best USF Study Abroad Photo; Best International Landscape, Seascape, or Cityscape; and Best Portrait. The awards ceremony will run from about 3:00 p.m. to about 3:15 p.m., during which time Susan Ansara, Director of Study Abroad, announced the three grand prize winners. Eight Honorable Mentions will each receive $25 cash prizes and the Grand Prize winners will each receive $100.

All winning images were displayed on November 17th during International Education Week (November 15-19). The art has since been moved to International Affairs in Cooper Hall where they will be permanently displayed.
