

USF Semester Exchanges Programs

Laval University

There is no greater way to understand a culture than to live in it! No other model of study abroad is as cost-effective or provides the in-depth cultural immersion of studying on exchange. Students earn credit towards their degrees while paying the equivalent of in-state USF tuition. It is one of the most fulfilling experiences USF offers!

About the host university: Universite of Laval is one of Canada's leading Universities in terms of research and international cooperation. This university can trace its origins to 1663 when the King of France Louis the XIV granted authorization for its creation, making it the first institution in North America to offer higher level education in French. Today Universite of Laval has pioneered in program assessment and strategic planning, and remains at the vanguard of the internationalization of teaching and research. Yearly Universite of Laval attracts more than 2000 foreign students and many out of region Canadian students.

How to Apply

All applications must go through the USF Education Abroad Office, not the host school. Exchange programs are competitive, students must submit to the Education Abroad Office:

- * Application Packet
- * Personal Statement
- * A letter of recommendation
- * Transcript

For more details on the application please see our website. Semester exchanges are competitive; students are advised to begin their applications at three months before the deadlines
