About the host university: Ecole Superieure d'Art de Lorient is a superior school for the Arts located in the Kergroise area of Lorient, France. Lorient is a coastal city rich with cultural events and a progressive arts environment. From the magnificent gardens to beautiful coastal setting, Lorient is known as a youthful city ambitious to foster artists and their work. The mission of ESA is to promote learning through art for the sake of the future of Art. It is the common objective of ESA's instructors to further the artistic development of their students through intensive study and practice. Through encouraging artistic expression, experimental techniques, studio work and artistic exploration, ESA offers a unique opportunity for in-depth studies in drawing, painting, sculpture, photography and art history courses.

How to Apply
