Today SRISA provides accredited academic-year and semester studio art programs, short workshops, and summer programs to the highest caliber. SRISA moved from its original location in 2000 to a new campus in Via San Gallo in the center of Florence Italy. This new campus allows the university to provide more facilities for a much broader curriculum, with the latest technology. The courses of study now include: Photography, Fashion Design, Printmaking, Book Arts, Painting, Drawing, Art History, Museum Studies, History, Politics and Social Science, Literature, Creative Writing, Italian Cinema, Digital Imaging, Journalism, Jewelry Design, Textiles Design, Italian Language (All Levels), and Intensive Italian.
