

USF Semester Exchanges Programs

University of Mayab

There is no greater way to understand a culture than to live in it! No other model of study abroad is as cost-effective or provides the in-depth cultural immersion of studying on exchange. Students earn credit towards their degrees while paying the equivalent of in-state USF tuition. It is one of the most fulfilling experiences USF offers!

LOCATION

Mayab, Mexico

ELIGIBILITY

Sophomore Standing, 2.75 GPA,
Spanish fluency

DEADLINES TO APPLY

Fall Semester: February 15

About the host university: The Universidad del Mayab was founded in 1984 as a private Catholic institution. It is a part of the prestigious Amiac network which has sister universities in Mexico, one in Europe and South America and an upcoming university in New York. Its education is centered on personalized education with an emphasis on moral values, personal and professional integrity and leadership skills. The Universidad del Mayab is the ideal setting for students seeking to submerge themselves in Spanish culture with its location being only ten miles away from Yucatan, a city that has been named Cultural Capital by an international committee, a distinction celebrated with innumerable cultural events throughout the year 2000.

How to Apply

All applications must go through the USF Education Abroad Office, not the host school. Exchange programs are competitive, students must submit to the Education Abroad Office:

- * Application Packet
- * Personal Statement
- * A letter of recommendation
- * Transcript

For more details on the application please see our website. Semester exchanges are competitive; students are advised to begin their applications at three months before the deadlines
