

USF Semester Exchanges Programs

University of Navarra

There is no greater way to understand a culture than to live in it! No other model of study abroad is as cost-effective or provides the in-depth cultural immersion of studying on exchange. Students earn credit towards their degrees while paying the equivalent of in-state USF tuition. It is one of the most fulfilling experiences USF offers!

About the host university: The University was founded in 1952 by St. Josemaría Escrivá de Balaguer, who summarized the mission of the University with the following words: "The University of Navarra strives to make present in all its activities the awareness of the idea that work is a testimony of the supremacy of the human being over the material world, a means of personal development, a bond between people and a fundamental way of contributing to the progress of humankind" Since its founding in 1952, the University of Navarra has been linked with Opus Dei, an institution of the Catholic Church founded by St. Josemaría Escrivá de Balaguer, and which spreads the message that work and the ordinary realities of life are the road of Christian life. The Prelature of Opus Dei provides the spiritual and pastoral means necessary in order that the University may maintain and develop its Christian identity.
